

March 2010

Dear Friends and Family,

Remember how I went to Honduras? Well, I'm going to Lima and Cusco, Peru, this summer! I am going with my mom and dad and a group of teens. It's not going to be a big vacation, but I'm excited. The trip starts June 17, and we are coming back July 7. We are going to teach people about Jesus by doing puppet shows, doing Bible clubs, showing the Jesus Film, and many other things!

Can you please pray for me? I need 15 prayer partners. Also, I need help with the cost of the trip. I need to raise $2,200. Could you please think about giving so that I can go to Peru? If you would like to give, please fill out the included form and send it with your gift.

I feel nervous and happy and ready for the trip! Thank you for helping me!

Your friend,

leigh
